REMARKS

Formal drawings are submitted herewith and the specification is amended to conform to the drawings. The amendments to the specification are of two types. First, the original stock symbol "GM" is replaced with "XX" to avoid use of a trademark. Second, the numerical values in the table 24 are conformed to the figures.

Respectfully submitted,

STRATEGED-UP SPECIFICATION

Please replace the paragraph beginning at line 22 of page 6 as shown:

As an example, the “current” P/E table 24 indicates that [GM’s] XX’s current P/E is [18.7] 22.1 and its P/E ratio for the previous 52 weeks has ranged between a high of [20] 44.7 and low of [10] 16.8. When the user clicks the button 30, a text window appears, as at 32 in Fig. 4. The text in window 32 first reports the analysis at 34A, that the current P/E is in the upper, middle or lower end of its range for the last 52 weeks. In this instance, the P/E for [GM] XX stock is currently in the upper end of that range. Next, a sentence or two is provided (at 34B) to explain the significance of that analysis. In the example, the sentence warns that the P/E may be fully valued, meaning that, as a consequence, the stock price might be expected to be stagnant or to fall.
